Note :- All employees and workmens claims are under verification due to :-

1. The claim submitted by Employees and Workmens are not supported by respective authentic documentary proof.
2. In the process of scrutiny of the claims, employees were asked to submit documentary evidence in accordance with regulation 19 of liquidation regulation. Employees have failed to submit important and necessary document for claim verification such as proof of employment/appointment letter, contract of employment, evidence of notice demanding payment of unpaid amount or any other documentary proof available in the corporate office. Employees have refused to submit any documentary proof on the ground that no appointment letter was given to them and no contract was entered into.
3. That, on 22nd January 2020, meeting of first stake holder consultation committee was held, in the meeting liquidator informed that during the process of verification of claims of employees or workman it is observed that in most of claims there is no relevant document submitted by claimants which can substantiate the claim amount. Further same concern was also communicated to all such claimants during verification process. As representative from the said class of creditor Mr. Rohin Homi Gandhi informed that there is no other document available/provided at the time of employment by suspended management of corporate debtor. In view of above discrepancy, liquidator proposed to take entire information/data from suspended management of corporate debtor and it was decided to take entire information/data from suspended management of corporate debtor.
4. That, in reference to above decision various communications were sent to suspended directors for providing employees information related to claims submitted by the employees.
5. Liquidator has also sent a Legal Notice on 12.03.2021, till date we have not received any response/data/documents as required.
6. After all the efforts liquidator has filed an Application with Hon'ble NCLT Indore Bench at Ahmedabad.

7. Above Application was disposed of vide order dated 02.12.2021 with the direction to suspended management to handover all the documents as called by the liquidator within seven days from toady failing which Liquidator may approach the Local Police and Local Police may giave all assistance to the Liquidator.

8. In Compliance of said order liquidator have sent a communication to suspended management to provide the documents within 7 days.

9. Upon failure to receive the documents after the order and our consequet letter, We have sent the Letter to thana Incharge to Provide Police Assistance in taking records from suspended management.

10. As we have neither received response from suspended management nor police station, we shall proceed further as may be advised by Advocate or by members of Stakeholder Consultation Committee.
